Distance Learning to Support Students with Significant Intellectual Disabilities

Choice Board for Independent Living Skills

Activities for Independent Living Skills

Prepare a lunch or breakfast for yourself. Start by creating a checklist of items needed for the meal. Then complete meal prep.	Check out recipes online or in a cookbook. Plan a meal. Resources: Quick &amp; Easy Recipes, Five-Ingredient Lunches	Make a chore list and chore schedule for yourself to be independent in your household. Resource: Chore lists
Call a friend and discuss a future date for lunch or dinner. Put date on a calendar and send an email invitation or Zoom invite. Resource: How to create a zoom meeting	Work on a grocery budget for a week with your family. Make a list and write down the cost of food for the week. Want to learn more about making a budget and online banking? Check out the resource below.	<ul> <li>Write or record the steps of toothbrushing for a younger friend or family member.</li> <li>Create a visual checklist of toothbrushing steps.</li> <li>Resource: Brush Your Teeth-Visual Support Checklist</li> </ul>
	Resource: MyKidsBank.org

