Distance Learning to Support Students with Significant Intellectual Disabilities

Choice Board for Transition Skills

Activities for Transition Skills

Review the Think College Website .	Read or listen to a book with a younger family member. Take a photo, or record a video or audio of the story.	Read the grocery store flyers or research online ordering sites to make a grocery list for your family meal this week.
	Resources: Storyline Online , Tar Heel Reader , Vooks	Resources: Walmart Grocery , Target Grocery , Kroger
	Want to read alone? Research your public library and discover, if they offer digital downloads or summer reading challenges.
Research with a family member the options for summer activities in your community. Make a list.	Practice your email skills. Email 3 friends and practice proper email etiquette.	Follow a picture recipe to create a meal. Take a picture of your final product.
Resources: DNR-State Parks : Find a Virtual Program , Plan a Visit , Indiana State Parks , Virtual Field Trips	Resources: Article- Proper Email Etiquette Tips for Teenagers

